BIBLIOTHECA BRASILIENSE

Catalogo annotado dos livros sobre o Brasil pertencentes a José Carlos Rodrigues. 1492-1822. Rio de Janerio, 1907 cloth $35.00

Part I (all published) of the most famous collection of books on Brasil and on the discovery of America, from 1492-1822. There are over 2,500 titles with full and interesting annotations, with valuable references to other bibliographies on the subject. The catalog was published in 200 copies only at the expense of the owner of the collection (now in the National Library at Rio). It is invaluable and indispensable for any library, librarian, collector, etc. and in no way superseded by any more recent work in this field.

Suspended between Ja/Mr 1940 and Jl 1946. In N/D 1947 merged with Année Politique et Economique and Res Publica to form Année Politique, Économique et Coopérative. Revue des Études Coopératives (et) Res Publica (varies). Resumed independent publication Ap/Je 1950.

La Revue des Études Coopératives was founded in 1921 by Professors Charles Gide and Bernard Lavergne. Since January 1, 1960, it has been the organ of l'Institut des Études Coopératives, the aim of which is to promote the development of the cooperative in all its forms, and toward this end to prepare for doctrinal and technical programs tools necessary for the spread of cooperative thinking, and by encouraging and facilitating related studies and researches.

Jointly edited by Bernard Lavergne and Francois Boudot, La Revue des Études Coopératives has been one of the leading French publications on cooperatives for almost half a century. Its desire is to interest the greatest number of people in the cooperative movement as being capable of providing the most fitting solutions to the economic, social and political problems of our time.

Dansk Biografisk Leksikon contains biographies of 11,700 outstanding personalities in Denmark since Ansgar. It covers all fields of Danish civilization: politics, art, literature, science, trade, industry, etc. Each article contains biographical data such as birth, death, marriage, parentage, and so forth, followed by a general valuation and a description of the person's life. Included is a list of works on and by him.

This set of 27 volumes is the largest literary work produced in Denmark. The information is highly reliable, and most of the articles are extremely well written.

ANNOUNCING 2 NEW REPRINTS

Jane's All the World's Aircraft

In Preparation

Years 1901/10-1922. London.

Cloth bound set	$360.00
Paper bound set	325.00
Per volume, paper bound	25.00

1909 saw Louis Bleriot piloting the first aeroplane to fly across the English Channel, and Fred T. Jane producing the inaugural edition of JANE'S ALL THE WORLD'S AIRCRAFT.

Mr. Fred T. Jane's contribution made no world headlines at the time, yet its present significance is manifest when, as recently, an informed reviewer described this illustrated annual as "an aeronautical bible".

Jane's Fighting Ships

In Preparation

Years 1898-1910. London.

Cloth bound set	$360.00
Paper bound set	325.00
Per volume, paper bound	25.00

The world's most exhaustive annual survey of existing and projected naval tonnage is contained and illustrated between the covers of this unique and famous annual.

Each edition describes every vessel known to be in naval service at the time of going to press, including navy-owned or specially chartered merchant vessels whether manned by naval or merchant crews, and also includes whatever relevant information is available on ships to be laid down and building, and on conversions, refits, and disposals.

Essentially up-to-date and forward looking, JANE'S FIGHTING SHIPS perpetuates the standards set by Fred T. Jane when he realised the wide potential of such a volume, and produced the first edition in 1897. The book is now accepted as a standard work of reference throughout the world.
